We have endeavored to present in these pages not only a faithful portrayal of Sunset, but also a hint of that spirit which makes Sunset to us something more than a school. We hope that in the 1940 Sundial you will find the key to many happy memories.

COL. A. C. BURNETT

To
Col. A. C. Burnett,
whose fairness and efficiency, coupled with a keen sense of humor, make him so admirable as an instructor and as a man, we respectfully dedicate the fifteenth volume of the Sundial.

OFFICE OF
SUNSET HIGH SCHOOL
W. T. WHITE, PRINCIPAL

To the Seniors of 1940:

Two fine graduating classes in 1940! We are all grateful for you, and proud of you. We should like to keep you with us always, were it not that we want to see you continue in your growth and development and achievements. We value you for your enthusiasm and self-confidence; your vigorous living; your friendship for each other and for us; your belief in the future; and your faith in your own ability.

Our wish for you is for your complete living in the years to come; for health; for happiness; for the satisfaction that comes from a vocation of usefulness; for a reasonable share of "worldly goods"; for the ability to choose wisely in friendship and love; for the acumen that will qualify you to evaluate yourselves as well as others.

Godspeed, and bon voyage!

Each year this Club makes cash awards to outstanding students in several school subjects, and gives a scholarship to one R. O. T. C. cadet who would not otherwise be able to attend Camp Dallas. Each year suitable trophies are given Sunset athletic teams winning the city series in their sports.

MEMORY OF SUMMER

I heard her laughter in the stream.
I saw her smile's elusive gleam;
And in the crystal water-fall
She sang a lilting madrigal.
I sought to tell her of my love
And reached to touch her floating hair.
A shadow passed the boughs above,
And just a yellow leaf hung there.
Ah, Summer! though your blooms depart,
Enshrined you live within my heart.

JOHNNY MCKINNEY

THE ROYAL GAME

Two youths contested o'er the checkered square
That formed the game board; played with bishop, rook,
And king; and moved their pawns about with care.

Such care in fact that each had failed to look,
Had failed to see that time its ceaseless watch
Had kept; and that the taper was transformed
From candle into wax; and that the light,
Grown shorter till the candlestick was warmed
By flame, would die and leave an utter night
About the players where they sat.

The chieftains of the world who care for naught today
On earth or yet in heaven except to play
With mortal pawns upon the field where wars are fought
Heed not this message from the charted past
"Who would be first among you shall be last."

GRAHAM LANDRUM

BEFORE SLEEP

Just before sleep is a weird time
The body dormant, the mind, preternaturally active,
Sorrows over mistakes of yesterday,
Ponders the problems of today,
Makes grand, impossible plans for the morrow.
Horrible out-of-proportion events
Follow in erratic sequence like images in an infocused lens.
The uncontrolled mind, unillumined by the cold, clear light of logic
Seems to stagger on the brink of insanity itself.
Thoughts finally drift into hazy dream-like images of desire;
Then all is quiet.
Sleep!

Activities

AFTER MARLOWE

Come live with me and be my own,
And pleasures to you will be shown
That night clubs, race tracks, football fields,
The opera or the movie yields.

And we will sit in ringside seats,
Watching gladiatorial feats.
In Carnegie, no less, we shall
Hear famous prima donnas yell.

And I will buy thee drinks so fine,
Cocktails from the finest wine,
A cape of ermine and a snood,
Chapeaux to fit your every mood.

A gown made of metallic cloth,
A dream come true for any moth;
I. Miller Shoes, exclusive styles
In which to dance away the miles.

A belt of gold with diamonds blue,
A Packard and a chauffeur too.
If all these fancies bring you cheer,
Come live with me and be my dear.

And Fred Astaire shall dance for thee,
While Sally does a turn for me.
So if these fancies bring you cheer,
Come live with me and be my dear.

—Dorothy Lamb.

AFTER RALEIGH

If I did not possess a mind
And you weren't shooting me a line,
These foolish fancies might me cheer
To live with thee and be thy dear.

Time has progressed; and now, you know,
The fights are broadcast blow by blow;
And prima donnas in relation
Can now be heard on any station.

Drinks do fade, and with the morn
A gorgeous hangover is born.
At ermine capes and snoods I smile;
You know they'll soon go out of style.

While as for gowns of fancy cloth
I gladly grant them to the moth;
And shoes in modes of fashion late
I buy at a dollar ninety-eight.

I need no belt and it is true
That busses do have drivers too;
So all your fancies bring no cheer;
I do not wish to be your dear.

But, were you handsome, dark, and tall
And had a Don Ameche drawl,
Though you be blessed with not a cent,
I'd be thy love and live in a tent.

—Dorothy Lamb.

ALL - ROUND P. E. CONTEST

The "All-Round P. E. Contest" is conducted annually in all classes and is opened to all girls. Good attendance, perfect suit inspection, the very best of work while on the floor, winning personality, popular with all members of the class and passing in four majors are the main requirements to win the contest. Congratulations to the Winners of 1939-'40!

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball is one of the most popular sports in the Girls Physical Education Department. A heated inter-class tournament was played at the end of the season. Below are the winning teams. The girls kneeling in the center are the championship team. They won every game they played. Reading from left to right they are Geraldine Poth, Virginia Boisseau, Romona Ticer, Frankie Hogan, Barbara McKey, Tesora Goad, Doris Jean Clark.

TENIKOIT

Tenikoit is fast becoming the most popular sport for girls in Sunset. The rules of the game are very similar to volley-ball rules. "Sailing" the round rubber ring back and forth over the net with lots of pep and accuracy affords plenty of exercise for all taking part. The girls in the picture made up the teams in the Interclass Tournament. The Varsity Team on the front row won all games played. Those from left to right are

POSTURE

Posture is one of the most important factors conducive to personal attractiveness. It is not a static thing and is to be conceived as a dynamic and ever changing attitude of the body. Posture and carriage, like clothes, are matters of style. A new style of posture and carriage prevail today. The modern style is an active and alive posture and carriage—the kind that makes one efficient, poised and graceful in walking, playing tennis, displaying clothes, dancing, in every activity.

In the picture below are the girls who were chosen as possessing the best posture and carriage in their classes. The three girls in evening dresses were chosen from this superior group because they were outstanding. They are Benjalee Stailey, "Posture Queen," Juanita Blanton, winner of second place, and Ometa Parker, winner of third place. This is one of the highest honors one can achieve in the Girls Physical Education Department.

SUNSET FOOTBALL SEASON

1939

SEPTEMBER 22. In spite of brilliant aerial work Sunset was trounced in a 13 to 9 tilt with the North Side Steers. Sunset scored on a pass, Couch to Hammons, and on an automatic safety made when "Toppy" Donald blocked a North Side punt into the end zone.

SEPTEMBER 29. Although Sunset started this game under odds because of the absence of several of her best men, the boys in purple gave a performance to be proud of. Thrice through the air and once on a running attack Sunset's opponent, Masonic Home, scored. In the fourth quarter, McVey and McDaniel, running behind excellent interference, pushed across the only Bison touchdown. Throughout the entire game the Bisons fought hard, but the Masonic eleven was not to be stopped. The final score was Sunset 6—Masonic Home 27.

October 7. In this city series opener between the Bisons and the Bulldogs no score was made until, in the third quarter, a 66-yard Bison drive culminated in a touchdown, with Forest kicking the extra point. In the same quarter, North Dallas scored, but failed to kick the extra point. The game seemed "in the bag" for Sunset. However, lady luck was not with the Bisons, for in the last few minutes of play the Bulldogs tallied, ending the game with a score of 13 to 7 in favor of North Dallas.

October 21. From the opening whistle to the final gun this game was definitely Sunset's. The Technical Wolves were crushed beneath the hoofs of the Bisons by a top heavy score of 32 to 0 for Sunset's only victory this season. McVey carried the ball on three of the five Sunset touchdowns, while passes, McDaniel to Crow and McDaniel to Hammons, accounted for the other two.

October 28. Again luck was with Sunset's opponent, as is indicated by the score 13 to 12 in favor of Forest Avenue Lions. McVey fought his way across the Forest goal line in the first period and again in the third. Forest's ability to kick the extra point when needed won the game from Sunset by a very narrow margin.

November 2. In the first quarter of this non-district contest, McVey crossed the Highland Park goal line to end a 76-yard Bison drive. The Scotties scored twice in the fourth quarter, once on a running attack and once after intercepting a Sunset pass on the 46-yard line, making the score 14 to 7, in favor of Highland Park.

November 22. Sunset's resistance to the powerful Woodrow Wilson eleven proved insufficient. Sunset's only score was made when Henry Foldberg made a beautiful catch on the four yard line, after which McVey plunged over for the touchdown. Although Sunset was beaten by a score of 34 to 6, the Bisons, nevertheless, played spirited football and made the big red team earn every point it received.

November 30. This exciting game, which kept fans of both schools on the edge of their seats biting their nails with pure anxiety, was played, for the most part, in a fog so dense as to obscure totally at times the teams from the spectators. Both teams made touchdowns in the second quarter, but in the third quarter Adamson made two to Sunset's one, which accounted for the score: Sunset 13, Adamson 18. Both Sunset touchdowns were made on passes, McDaniel to Simmons.

A BALLAD OF BRUTE FORCE

Shoulder to shoulder they stood, these two;
Each eyed the other with proud disdain.
Shoulder to shoulder, and with thew and sinew
Renewed the struggle with might and main.

Shoulder to shoulder and eye to eye,
Nor either would yield his place.
Each wished and waited for the other to die,
And the struggle grew apace.

Shoulder to shoulder and hour on hour
Immovable they stood, these valiant two,
Personification of knighthood in flower,
Godlike courage possess'd by few.

Their labor in strife begins to tell;
Each o' the two's steeped in sweat and gore.
Noxious exhaustion rings his knell,
They falter, can struggle no more.

To some such a scene oh sad may seem,
But I laughed till I could no more.
For who could imagine a sight more extreme
Than two fat men caught in a door?

Sidney Suhler.
